Textbook: J. Stewart, Calculus, 5th ed.

Tests: There will be five quizzes (each 20 minutes long), two midterms (each 50 minutes long), one final exam;

Tentative schedule: the 1st midterm on Oct 3 and the 2nd midterm on Nov 7; quizzes can be announced or unannounced.

Grade: You can earn up to 400 points: each quiz is 20 points, each midterm is 60 points, the final exam is 180 points.

Grade scale: 360 - 400 A
320 - 359 B
280 - 319 C
240 - 279 D
below 240 F

Course Policy: There are no make-up tests and no extra credit. In the case of a legitimate excuse (death in the family, severe medical problems, official UCF functions) the points of the missed test will be added to the weight of your final. NC grades are given out at the instructor's discretion but you must have taken all the tests and your overall score is not lower than 200.

Homework will be assigned but not collected. Your tests will contain problems similar to the ones assigned in your homework.

Note: Regular attendance is proven to be an important factor for your success in the class. Please inform the instructor in advance if you plan to miss a class, if you need to leave the class early or if you are expecting to be late.

Extra help: The MATH LAB is available free of charge to all students enrolled in this class. The Math Lab is located in MAP 113 and is open Monday-Thursday 9am to 7pm, Friday 9am to 3 pm and on Sunday 2pm to 6pm.

Cheating: Anyone who compromises the integrity of the tests will subject to harsh penalties, up to and including a grade F for the course.

Important dates: withdrawal deadline - 10/14; last day of classes - 12/01; final exam - 12/08, 7:00 - 9:50pm.
