| Letter Grade | A          | B          | C        | D        | F         |

Homework: Homework problems will be assigned as soon as we finish each section from the textbook. Homework will not be graded. However, questions on the tests may be similar to the examples of the textbook and the ones in homework assignments. So it is very important to complete all the homework assignments and read the examples in the textbook.

Tentative List of Topics: Sections: 1 –24, 26—28, 31 – 35.

Attendance Policy: Experience tells us that students who will succeed in the class are the ones always attend classes. So you are required to attend all the scheduled classes on time and stay the entire class period. Please inform the instructor in advance if you plan to miss a lecture, if you need to leave early or if you are expecting to be late. Please observe the other rules of courtesy and the university Golden rules.

Important Dates: Withdraw deadline (June 22); Test 1 (May 31, Thursday); Test 2 (June 21, Thursday); Test 3(July 12, Thursday); Test 4 (August 2, Thursday); Memorial Day (May 28), Independence Day (July 4)

Remarks:

- (a) Information in this syllabus is subject to change. However, any changes will be clearly announced in class.
- (b) Students at sites receiving classes via ITV are subject to the same policies, terms and conditions as all UCF students. In addition, regional administrators may apply additional polices to students taking classes at their campus. Any student in violation of these policies will be reported to the Office of Student Conduct for proper disciplinary action.
